

You said that you were disabled due to ALS beginning (ALS alleged onset date in MM/DD/YY format). The medical evidence shows [Personalized Disability Language]

About The Decision

Doctors and other trained staff looked at your case and made this decision. They work for your state but used our rules.

If You Disagree With The Decision

If you believe this reconsideration determination is not correct, you may request a hearing.

A person who has not seen your case before will look at it. That person is an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) of the Office of Hearings and Appeals (OHA). The ALJ will review your case again and consider any new facts you have before deciding your case.

- You have 60 days to ask for a hearing.
- The 60 days start the day after you get this letter. We assume you got this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show that you did not get it within the 5-day period.
- You must have a good reason if you wait more than 60 days to ask for a hearing.
- You have to ask for a hearing in writing. We will ask you to sign a form HA-501-U5, called "Request for Hearing." Contact one of our offices if you want help.
- You may make your request through any Social Security office. As part of the appeal process, you also need to tell us about your current medical condition. We provide a form for doing that, the Disability Report – Appeal. You may contact one of our offices or call 1-800-772-1213 to request this form, or you may complete the report online at <http://www.socialsecurity.gov/disability/hearing>.
